

Mrs Eléonore Tramus
General Manager East Mediterranean Establishment
Air France KLM

As of September 2022, Eléonore Tramus is General Manager of Air France-KLM East Mediterranean which includes 7 countries (Italy, Greece, Cyprus, Israel, Turkey, Malta and Albania), 18 airports, where operate more than 500 flights per week, and counts more than 200 employees. The establishment base is in Rome where she lives with her family.

An engineering graduate from Ecole Centrale, Eleonore Tramus has a wealth of professional experience in engineering and aeronautics.

After various experiences at SNECMA (SAFRAN Aircraft Engines), Eleonore joined the Group in 2010 within Air France Industries, taking care of medium-haul fleet engineering. She then moved to the Engines Engineering & Maintenance division of Air France – KLM Group, as among other positions, Director of Business Development for engine parts repair (B777, A320).

In 2016 she was appointed as Air France Director Network Planning for Asia, India, Middle East and Gulf. From 2019, for three years, she has held the position of Air France-KLM Managing Director Global Sales.